Student Leadership Team

Brochure & Application

Howdy!

I am excited that you are reading this brochure right now. Maybe you picked it up because you were curious about what this brochure is about. Or maybe it was given to you by somebody who thought you would be a good leader. Whatever the reason is, I encourage you to read this through prayerfully. We are in the process of putting together a group of students who are wholeheartedly committed to Christ and interested in the overall health and impact of this student ministry. It is important that anyone seriously contemplating this team be thoroughly prayed up and have a heart for others. This student leadership team will be lead by Jason to bring about a deep and wide ministry focus. Anyone interested to be on this team needs to consider the following expectations:

Be a vocal leader in the student ministry.

Be a consistent example of Christ at school and home.

Be willing to serve and put others before themselves.

Be humble in attitude and actions.

Be willing to share Christ with their friends.

Be faithful in their own personal walk with Christ.

Be active in the student ministry on Sundays and Wednesdays and other student ministry events.

I am excited about putting this team together! I hope you are excited about the possibilities at hand. If you have any questions about this brochure and application feel free to call, text, or email me.

Serving the One and Only!

What will be involved in the Student Leadership Team?

Time Commitment

This team will meet 2-3 times a month. These meetings will be used to help train you to share your faith and become an outreach-minded individual. We will discuss strategies to use to help share God's Word. You also will be required to attend a leadership retreat on January 2-3, 2009. You are also expected to attend a Super Summer if you did not last year. Anytime you feel like you cannot commit to the requirements of the team, you may step down.

Vocal Leader

You will be expected to be a vocal leader within the student ministry. Along with supporting the student ministry through your words, it is expected that you speak up when necessary. This includes being an encouraging member of the ministry, being someone who will stand up for what's right, and willing to talk to visitors and guests.

Lifestyle

You will be expected to live a life that is exemplary and is a testimony of your faith in Christ. In other words, you are to have a lifestyle that honors Jesus. Remember, you will be held to a higher standard because of your leadership role.

Service/Humility

You will be expected to be a servant leader. Jesus is a wonderful example of this. Things as simple as putting chairs away, setting up a room, cleaning up after other people, and having a humble attitude through it all are the types of things expected.

Evangelism

You will be expected to learn how to share your faith and practice that on a daily basis. One of the major aspects of being on this team is leading out in evangelism.

Personal Walk

You will be expected to have and maintain a personal quiet time. It is important that you take care of your personal spiritual walk each day.

Active at Parkside

You will be expected to support the activities of the student ministry at PBC. This includes: Sunday School, Worship, Discipleship, Throwdown, and other
