So that all Goes Smoothly

- You have new parents! Respect your host home parents and their house with great care. Listen to them and follow all house rules. Your Bible Study Leaders are your big sibling and is the captain of your group. Listen to them!
- Once you are at your home for the weekend, you will put away your car keys until Sunday. Please refrain from driving throughout the weekend!
- Absolutely no pranks! It may be fun for you, but not for the people you are pranking. Let make sure we treat others as we would want to be treated.
- There are no electronic devises allowed during the weekend. No phones, no TV, no Xbox/Playstation, and no Switch.
- Snacks are to be enjoyed and shared with everyone. Just because you brought snacks doesn't mean they are yours alone. Keep snacks in the kitchen for all to enjoy!
- Please clean your host home before you leave on Sunday morning. Pick up your dirty clothes, don't leave things in the bathroom, and be good helpers.
- You are not allowed to leave the weekend unless you have a time away card. Please fill out signed and bring with you on Friday.
- This is your new family and you will do everything with them. You will eat with them, worship with them, play with them, and serve with them.
- Enjoy yourself and let God do a work in you!
